

8/1/08

8-1-08 We are getting close to finishing up a very productive summer with adequate rainfall and a good growing season. Our plantings this year included over 50 acres of forage soybeans and 70+ acres of corn plus we have fed several tons of protein pellets. We have openings available for the upcoming season so let us know as things are looking real promising.

Click here for photos of our deer population.